

Bonfire Night 2015

The random noises in the night
The pop and crackle overhead
Can set the bravest dogs to flight
And fill brave canine hearts with dread.
For what do these strange noises mean
If not a threat to home and pack?
What do these loud bangs signify
If not a prelude to attack?
And so I bark and stand on guard
And crouch here with my hackles up
For Bonfire night's a night besieged
For every dog and every pup.
